Thank You

We were totally blown away by the quality and quantity of your submissions—AMAZING! The festival was a huge success! We'd like to give a big 'thanks' to everyone who entered. They're the backbone of our Creative Community and they deserve mad props. For the next few weeks we'll be featuring a lot of the films that didn't make it to this page. So stay tuned-in to the Bolt Blog for honorable mentions and random awesomeness. Thanks again to all who entered. We'll have to rock another one of these sometime down the line.
